

Plan of Dissolution as Way Forward Rationale

Irreconcilable differences exist within The United Methodist creating an existential crisis. Dissolution would free the church from these differences, allowing the resulting entities to move forward in ministry as they are led by God.