

REMAINING FAITHFUL: A Global Call to Prayer - 21 June 2019

Methodist Evangelicals Together is calling for Christians around the world to engage in a day of prayer and fasting for the Methodist Church in Britain to remain faithful to the biblical understanding of marriage. Please can you join with us in prayer and fasting, either individually or with other Christians, on 21 June. Also, please can you forward this email to other Christians, churches and prayer groups. The time is short and the need is great.

Our Global Call to Prayer flyer is included below and is also as an attachment to the email, and we would appreciate this flyer being spread widely through social media.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in Britain will run from Thursday 27 June – Thursday 4 July. Amongst many other agenda items, it will debate a report entitled ‘God in love unites us’, which includes proposals to change the definition of marriage to include same-sex marriages, and for such marriages to be able to take place within Methodist churches. Methodist Evangelicals Together believes that this to be against Scripture, and wants our denomination to remain faithful to the Bible’s teaching. In addition to joining with us in prayer on 21 June, please also pray during the Conference.

Yours sincerely,

Derek Balsdon,

Development Worker for Methodist Evangelicals Together

The Methodist Church in Britain is at a crossroads as it debates its understanding of marriage, beginning at its annual Conference June 27 - July 4 2019. Methodist Evangelicals Together calls the global church to a day of prayer and fasting, that our church would remain faithful to the Bible’s teaching.
